Recently, I heard a teacher describe what tactics she was trying on her third grade class to try to get them to be nicer to one another. Is this a sign of what is to come in the adult world? Or have we already arrived at the rude, sarcastic, demanding selfishness that this teacher sees in her third grade class?

What about you? Are you kind? What about when you don't feel like it? What about when someone annoys you? What about when you know you are right? Do you feel people deserve to be treated with kindness or are you one of those teens who only feels kindness is important when there is something to gain from it?

Treat others the way you want to be treated and it will soon become a habit. Dropping sarcastic blurbs that hurt or insult others is also a habit.

National Day of Kindness is November 13 and "make kindness the norm" is the theme. Let's celebrate kindness every day of the year!

The mission of Upward Bound at Mineral Area College is to serve eligible high school students by providing academic enrichment, cultural experiences, and a support network to ensure their success in attaining a four year college degree.

A Federally Funded Program

The Mineral Area College Upward Bound I program is a TRIO program funded with a five-year, $1,495,566 grant from the U.S. Department of Education. This represents 100% of the program cost. Mineral Area College provides 25% of indirect costs to support the program.

The Mineral Area College Upward Bound II program is a TRIO program funded with a five-year, $1,298,771 grant from the U.S. Department of Education. This represents 100% of the program cost. Mineral Area College provides a portion of indirect costs to support the program.

Upward Bound is one of five programs established by Congress to help low-income, first-generation students enter college and graduate. These programs are referred to as the TRIO programs.

For more information on Upward Bound I or II or for information on how to apply, contact the Upward Bound office located at Mineral Area College, (573) 518-2156. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.
